Safeguarding Definitions

Abuse

Abuse is a general term that is used to cover a wide range of harm caused to people. It always involves a violation of the person's rights. It can take various forms as described under "Categories of Abuse" later in this section

Adult at risk of abuse (sometimes referred to as adult in need of protection)

These are adults who have care and support needs, however, in addition, they are at risk of abuse, and because of their support needs, are unable to protect themselves.

Since these adults are unable to protect themselves, we have a legal duty to protect them

Adult with care and support needs

An adult who requires help or support with basic and essential day-to-day tasks such as:

- Getting up, washing, or dressing
- Cooking meals
- Cleaning the house
- Shopping
- Managing their finances
- etc.

Adults with care and support needs have the right to choose whether they want support or not

Allegation (against a member of staff or volunteer)

An allegation is a claim that a person who has a role that provides access to a vulnerable person has used their position to exploit, abuse, or otherwise harm the person they should have been caring for

Categories of abuse

This term is used to refer to the legally recognised forms of abuse.

When considering the safeguarding of children, abuse is categorised under four headings:

- Physical
- Sexual
- Emotional

- Neglect

When considering the safeguarding of adults, abuse is categorised under ten headings:

- Physical
- Sexual
- Psychological (or emotional)
- Neglect
- Domestic
- Institutional
- Financial or material
- Modern slavery
- Self-neglect
- Discriminatory

Child

A person (including an unborn child) who has not yet reached the age of 18 years

Child protection

Child protection is defined as the protection of children who have suffered, or are at risk of suffering, “significant harm”. It is our legal duty to report all Child Protection concerns to either Children’s Social Care or the Police as per local procedures

Designated Safeguarding Lead

Frequently abbreviated to DSL, this is the person appointed by the church to take responsibility for many aspects of safeguarding, including receiving safeguarding concerns from staff or volunteers, and passing them on to the local authority where their threshold is met

Early Help / Child in Need

Early Help and Child in Need are the areas of safeguarding where a child who has additional needs is receiving targeted support to meet their needs. Support is consent-based, and so the parents (or the young person if deemed competent to make decisions for themselves) can choose whether to access the support

Neglect

Neglect is one of the categories of abuse that is characterised by the failure to provide the basic necessities for life, where we have a responsibility to do so

Safeguarding

Safeguarding is a broad range of activities that range from the general duty of care that we have for everyone who comes into contact with the charity, through early intervention and targeted support, to protection from significant harm. It relates to both children and adults

Spiritual Abuse

This term has become widely used, although it remains ill-defined and is not a legally recognised category of abuse. We understand this to be a term referring to emotional, psychological or spiritual harm caused within the context of a religious community, often, but not always, involving the misuse of power, authority, position, or scripture to manipulate, control and abuse others. This policy does not refer specifically to the different categories of abuse since it covers all forms of abuse and harm

Universal safeguarding

This refers to the general duty of care that we must provide for everyone who comes into contact with the church

Vulnerable adults

This term is only used as a generic term. It is no longer used as a technical descriptor for a specific group of people. A vulnerable adult is less able to protect themselves and meet their own needs than an adult who has no vulnerabilities

Reviewing Policy

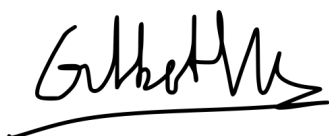

This provisional policy will be reviewed within six months to ensure compliance with current UK safeguarding guidance and denominational requirements
